

How to submit a document?

use Upload-Tool: <http://www.dagstuhl.de/<seminar-no.>/Materials/> + Button „manage documents“

05011 - Computing and Markets (03.01.-07.01.05)

You are logged in as: Cramton, Peter

Logout

Use of this Upload Tool

- Before and during the seminar: Seminar Materials Platform (Steps 1 + 2)
Please fill in the meta data of your presentation/talk. Additionally, you may upload slides or further supporting material. These data can be completed, changed or deleted at any time.
- After the seminar: Submission Platform (Steps 1-5)
For each seminar, one volume of Dagstuhl Seminar Proceedings will be officially published. You may submit a (draft) paper or extended abstract to the Dagstuhl Seminar Proceedings. Submitted contributions cannot be changed or deleted.
- After the seminar: Abstracts Collection (Step 1)
All meta data of one seminar will be compiled into 1 document, layouted and published as 'abstracts collection' in the proceedings.

Step 1: Metadata of your Document

Title:

List of all Authors: (<Last Name>, <First Name>)

Abstract: (plain text with LaTeX maths)

Keywords: (max. 140 characters)

*Bibliography:

Hyperlink: () only if paper is already published

1. Fill in all Metadata + save becomes 1 section in „abstracts collection“

Your Document Files

manage data on "Seminar Materials" Platform for use before, during, after your seminar correct, replace or delete possible; all formats allowed

(de) select for submission

Slides:

(Extended) Abstract:

(Draft) Paper:

Other:

Logout and return to platform "Seminar Materials"

You are logged in as: Cramton, Peter manage data on Submission Platform for citable publication in Dagstuhl Seminar Proceedings delete not possible, PDF only no submission of slides possible

paper.pdf

Submit selected contributions to Dagstuhl Seminar Proceedings

2. Upload to Materials Platform

3. Move to Submission Platform

4. Button „Submit Now“ + confirm on next Web Page

becomes 1 publication