

Preliminary Program: Dagstuhl seminar "Privacy and Security in Smart Energy Grids"
 December 18-21, 2011

Sunday, December 18
18.00 - ?	Informal "get together"
Monday, December 19
9.00-10.00	Opening of the seminar and introductory talk by Klaus Kursawe : Challenges and Opportunities in the Smart Grid
10.00-10.15	Break
10.15-11.15	Erwin Kooi/Jos Weyers The Smart Grid from a DSO/TSO Perspective
11.15-12.15	Michael John Smart Meter Security: Overview of European Initiatives and Member State Activities
12.15-14.00	Lunch Break
14.00-14.45	Paulo Verissimo Can Security- and Privacy- Critical Applications be cloudified? TLOUDS says yes!
14.45-15.30	Carsten Rudolph Challenges for Security Information and Event Management in Smart Grids
15.30-16.00	Break
16.00-17.00	Wenyuan Xu What's going on in your neighborhood: security and privacy analysis of utility meters
18.00-?	Dinner
Tuesday, December 20
9.30-10.30	George Danezis Privacy-Friendly Billing for Smart Metering
10.30-10.45	Break
10.45-11.15	Günter Müller Making money with Data Exchange in Smart Grids on the expense of Privacy
11.15-12.15	Florian Kerschbaum Some protective measures for privacy in Smart Grids
12.15-14.00	Lunch Break
14.00-17.00	Work groups WG1: Secure and Resilient Architectures WG2: Device Security for Smart Meters
18.00-?	Dinner
Wednesday, December 21
9.30-10.30	Results of the work groups, discussion
10.30-10.45	Break
10.45-12.15	Further steps & adjourn
12.15-14.00	Lunch